

ebm-papst joins the United Nations Global Compact

The company is committed to global principles of sustainability and responsible business practices

MULFINGEN, Germany, March 17, 2026 – ebm-papst Mulfingen GmbH & Co. KGaA & Co. KG has been an official signatory to the United Nations Global Compact (abbreviation: UN Global Compact). By voluntarily joining, ebm-papst has become part of a global community of companies committed to responsible business practices.

The UN Global Compact calls on companies worldwide to align their activities and strategies with ten recognized principles in the areas of human rights, labor standards, the environment, and anti-corruption, and to take measures to support the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Since its inception in 2000, the UN Global Compact has grown to become the world's largest corporate sustainability initiative, with more than 25,000 participating companies in 167 countries and 64 local networks.

"With our corporate purpose 'Engineering a better life', we have illustrated our goal of contributing to a better future. We take this very seriously, as we have been convinced since our founding that ecology and economy are not mutually exclusive. By joining the UN Global Compact, we are once again anchoring the issue of sustainability in our company and thus also sending a clear signal to the outside world," explains Harald Klaiber, CFO of the ebm-papst Group.

United Nations Global Compact – a special initiative

As a special initiative of the UN Secretary-General, the United Nations Global Compact is a call to companies everywhere to align their operations and strategies with Ten Principles in the areas of human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption. Our ambition is to accelerate and scale the global collective impact of business by upholding the Ten Principles and delivering the Sustainable Development Goals through accountable companies and ecosystems that enable change. With more than 25,000 participating companies in over 160 countries, and 64 Local Networks, the UN Global Compact is the world's largest corporate sustainability initiative — one Global Compact uniting business for a better world
