ebm-papst honors its staff for their long-term commitment to the company

Service Celebration at ebm-papst

During the festive celebration in the company staff canteen, ebm-papst honored its employees for their longstanding loyalty. In total, 37 employees were invited to celebrate their lengthy service, with 25 employees celebrating their 10 years of service, 9 employees celebrating 25 years, two employees celebrating 40 years and one employee celebrating 45 years of staying with the company. ebm-papst is proud of its dedicated staff, who bring a rich panoply of experience to the working day of the company with their long years of service.

Raymond Engelbrecht, Managing Director of ebm-papst St. Georgen, thanked the employees celebrating their service anniversary for their dedication, commitment and their strong attachment to ebm-papst. "They represent the values of the company and they are the reason the company has flourished into a strong, successful business over the years."

Mr. Joachim Gwinner, Head Public Servant (Schwarzwald-Baar-Kreis Office), deputy mayor Hansjörg Staiger and Mr. Thomas Albiez (Managing Director of the IHK Schwarzwald-Baar-Heuberg) joined in the celebration to recognize professional achievements of our colleagues. They praised the company's commitment to being the largest employer in Bergstadt.

In addition to the official honors, Buttler Archibal ensured the guests’ entertainment. He presented the program of the day, announced the arrival of excellent courses and introduced the entertainment on offer. His varied presentation made for an amusing evening, and the guests had a few surprises in store for them. The company canteen rounded off the evening by providing a festive meal.
